

We seek a

New trustee for the Himalayan Trust UK

Particular responsibility: Joint Education Programme Leader

The Himalayan Trust UK is a small charity which has been working since 1989 to help the mountain people of Nepal. We strive to improve health and education in the mountainous regions of Northeastern Nepal, particularly in the Taplejung region.

It is expected that each trustee will be involved in the general work of the Trust (overseeing the strategy and direction of the organisation, reviewing the activities of our NGO in Nepal, supporting events etc) and will also have a specialist role in line with their own experience and qualifications.

Key elements of the role

- To work closely with John Walton, Joint Education Programme Leader, in agreeing with REED Nepal the ongoing strategy and budget for the educational stream of the work of HTUK in 35 schools in the Taplejung District.
- To assist in regular reviews of the work of REED Nepal, our partner NGO in Nepal.
- To travel to Nepal from time to time, with fellow trustees and volunteers.
- To contribute to the overall strategy and direction of the work of the HTUK.
- To support events and other initiatives as may be organised by the HTUK.

The ideal candidate will

- Have an interest in the country and people of Nepal
- Have first-hand professional experience in education in the UK or abroad
- Have an interest in performance analysis in education
- Be familiar and adept with the use of Excel in budgets and financial statements
- Enjoy working with and supporting others in a team
- Be keen to play an active and creative part in the development of strategy and initiatives

Rewards of the role

The HTUK trustees are a committed group of people who enjoy each other's company, support each other's initiatives and share a strong motivation to meet the aims of the Trust.

Application and interviews

Please contact Tim Keyes (HTUK trustee) thkeyes28@hotmail.com if you would like detailed information about the role or the application process.
